

Become a member of the John Snow Society

Celebrating the life and tradition of Dr John Snow: the noted epidemiologist, anaesthetist, innovator, remover of pump handles...

About us

The John Snow Society has more than 3000 members worldwide, many of whom are eminent specialists in public health.

Membership is open to anyone who wishes to celebrate the memory of John Snow. International membership is encouraged, the only requirement being that you visit the John Snow pub on any visit to London! Life membership is £15, which entitles you to a John Snow membership card and commemorative mug (an additional charge of £4 is required to cover postage costs of the mug within Europe and

£5 for postage outside Europe). Please tick the box if you have already received the mug

The joining fee is payable by UK cheque (payable to 'John Snow Society') or online bank transfer. Unfortunately we are unable to accept dollar or euro cheques.

In order to complete your application, please either email Deborah Curle at johnsnowsociety@lshtm.ac.uk for details of online bank transfers, or send a cheque to the address below.

The John Snow Society will use your information to process and manage your membership. Our legal basis for processing your information is to fulfil our contract with you and provide you with membership services. Managing membership includes administering membership records, providing and organising activities; events; advising you of our services; maintaining our own accounts and records. We may share some of your personal information with our email-marketing platform, in order to send you details of the annual Broadsheet, Pumphandle Lecture and AGM, which are part of your membership benefits. We will retain your personal information for the duration of your membership. When your membership expires we will continue to retain some of your information in order to be able to prove your membership if needed. We will delete the information which we no longer require 6 years after your membership expires, in case you wish to rejoin. We will send you relevant information about the services we provide to our members as part of your membership benefits. We will not share your personal information with any other organisation without your prior consent, unless we are required to do so by law. For further information on how your information is used, how we maintain the security of your information, and your rights to access the information we hold on you, please see our privacy policy: <https://www.rsph.org.uk/about-us/legal-disclaimer/privacy-policy.html>.

Our Activities

The Society organises a miscellany of activities from serious to social. According to our constitution, any time two members meet, anywhere, they may declare it a meeting of the John Snow Society. We encourage members to organise activities and let other members know about them (photographic records are encouraged in preference to minutes). One formal lecture is held each year: The Pumphandle Lecture (on or near the 8 September), organised by epidemiologist members, to which all are welcome. Local chapters of the Society may like to hold meetings and visit the John Snow Pub in Broadwick Street, Soho, where pictures relating to Snow are on display in the upstairs bar; and where the Visitors' book is also held.

Administering the Society

A small steering group oversees the main activities of the Society. Members include:

Professor Sandy Cairncross (LSHTM), Mr Oliver Cumming (LSHTM), Professor John Edmunds (LSHTM), Professor Paul Fine (LSHTM), Dr Stefan Flasche (LSHTM), Dr James Hargreaves (LSHTM), Dr Sebastian Funk (LSHTM), Dr Dilys Morgan (PHE), Professor John Watson (Department of Health) Professor Jimmy Whitworth (LSHTM), Dr Sebastian Funk (LSHTM), Dr Marta Tufet (UKCDR), Shirley Cramer CBE (RSPH)

The Royal Society for Public Health (www.rsph.org.uk)

The John Snow Society is associated with the Royal Society for Public Health. The RSPH is an independent, multi-disciplinary organisation, dedicated to the promotion and protection of collective human health and wellbeing. The Society holds a range of conferences including those on water issues such as private water supplies and handwashing.

Many of the RSPH's members are water specialists, environmental health officers, communicable disease specialists and other health professionals interested in water health and safety. For further details please contact membership@rsph.org.uk.
